OVATIONS FOR THE CURE ANNOUNCES ELECTION OF JULIETTE GALICIA PICO AND AMY B. NAUGHTON TO BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Natick, Mass. – April 30, 2007 – Ovations for the Cure today announced the election of Juliette Galicia Pico and Amy B. Naughton to its Board of Directors.

Juliette Galicia Pico, a principal with the law firm of Lourie & Cutler, P.C., a tax boutique firm widely recognized for its expertise in the areas of federal and state taxation, business planning, and estate planning, has been appointed Treasurer of the Ovations board. Juliette has considerable experience with tax planning, business planning and charitable giving.

Juliette graduated summa cum laude from Boston College in 1988 where she received a Bachelor of Science in Accounting. She received her law degree from Boston College Law School in 1991 and is admitted to the bar in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. She is admitted to practice before the U.S. Tax Court and the First Circuit Court of Appeals. Prior to joining Lourie & Cutler, P.C., in 1992, Juliette worked at an international accounting firm and also clerked with the Internal Revenue Service, Office of Chief Counsel, in Boston, Massachusetts.

Amy B. Naughton, also a principal at Lourie and Cutler, P.C., has been named as Legal Advisor to the Ovations Board of Directors. Amy has a primary expertise in the areas of income, estate and gift taxation. She has significant experience in matters of charitable giving, and currently acts as an advisor to a number of educational institutions and other public charities.

Amy graduated cum laude from Harvard Law School in 1990, and received a Bachelor of Arts, magna cum laude (with honors in Economics), from Duke University in 1987. She is a columnist for the New England Real Estate Journal, and writes a wide range of business planning topics.

Debbie Soprano, Executive Director for Ovations for the Cure, said, “We are very fortunate to welcome Juliette and Amy to Ovations. The addition of these women strengthens the expertise and expands the breadth of the Ovations board. Their experience will be valuable as Ovarations continues to broaden its reach nationally. I look forward to their contributions to our future growth.”

About Ovarations for the Cure

The Ovarations for the Cure Foundation, a 501 (c) (3) not-for profit organization, is dedicated to the relentless pursuit of a cure for ovarian cancer in two critical ways: first by proliferating broad-spectrum awareness of ovarian cancer risk factors and its subtle warning signs; and second, through the continued support of new and ongoing ovarian cancer research and treatment initiatives.
